

Master of Public Health

One Year Advising Plan

The total requirements for the major are 45 credits for traditional students. Many students who have an advanced degree (MD, MBBS, JD, DDS, EdD or PhD) may qualify for a credit waiver of up to nine credits.

Summer / June

Open Elective

Fall / August

EPH 500 Introduction to Public Health
EPH 501 Medical Biostatistics
EPH 521 Fundamentals of Epidemiology
Open Elective
Open Elective

Intersession / January

Open Elective

Spring / January

EPH 520 Health Education and Behavior
EPH 541 Environmental Health
EPH 631 Public Health Administration
Open Elective
Open Elective

Intersession / March

Open Elective

Summer / May

Capstone Field Experience
Capstone Report

Select Elective Courses

Cancer Epidemiology
Child Policy
Clinical Trials
Community Based Participatory Research
Chronic Disease Epidemiology
Determinants of Health
Disease Prevention & Health
Promotion
Energy Balance
Environmental Epidemiology
Ethics in Public Health
Fundamentals of Program Evaluation
Global Health
Global Outbreak Investigations
Health Economics
Health Policy
Health Services Research Methods
Maternal Child Health
Occupational Health
Oceans & Human Health
Public Health Administration
Social Epidemiology
Survey Methods
Survival Analysis in Clinical Trials
Vector Borne Diseases
Urban Environment & Public Health

For a full list of course descriptions and elective options visit:

publichealth.med.miami.edu/graduate/academic-programs/course-descriptions